

MIDDLE SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Good Morning Middle School. Today is,
Wednesday, October 31st, 2018
Happy Halloween!

Oakwood reading buddies... If you signed up to be a reading buddy, please get a permission slip from your English teacher or the office. We are still looking for 18 students to be readers on Mondays and 12 more students for Wednesdays through December. Turn your permission slip into Ms. Gordon.

There will be no after school tutoring Wednesday after school.

October is National Bullying Prevention Month... On Friday we encourage all staff and students to wear black to represent "blacking out bullying". We will also be having a short assembly during 3rd hour on Friday about bullying prevention.

Sign up for Competitive Cheer in the office... Tryouts Nov 1st- 3:15-5:15 in the wrestling room at PMS. Parent Meeting is Nov. 1st at 5:15pm.

Want to give Mr. O'Rourke a pie in the face? If you bring in cake mixes, cake frosting they are worth 5 points each. Bring in stuffing mix, instant mashed potatoes, jiffy mixes..they are worth are 3 points each. Any other food product is worth 1 point. Bring your food to the office and place them in your grade level box. For every 200 points Mr. O'Rourke will receive 1 pie in the face from the winning grade level. If 1,000 points is reached- Mrs. Davis will buy everyone a popsicle! Look for fliers around the school!

Attention all Peer2Peer Mentors and students - today is our Halloween Lunch Party in the band room. Please take all party food to Mrs. Whorley's room after 1st hour if you have not done so already. An announcement will be made at the end of 4th hour as a reminder. 6th and 7th graders will need to check in with their 5th hour teachers for attendance first - 8th graders can come to the band room for lunch. If you have any questions, please see Mrs. Whorley during passing time.